AUCTION

A	LORD LUTHER	MY MISTAKE	SCHIRECK 101	VG++	200
West Coast stormer with torrid, caustic vocals from bluesman Luther McDaniels, turned up for Ginger in the late seventies but in the era of Cobblestone, Burning Bush etc was probably a little bit hard-edged to ever win the masses over. The end result is a connoisseur's item that stands a chance these days and which we haven't had in quite a while.
B	THE MASQUERADERS	HOW	LA BEAT 6606	VG++	1000
And fresh from 'America's Got Talent!' (true). If you didn't know the remaining trio of the group recently got to the quarter finals of this yawntacious show. The lead singer on 'How' (Lee Jones) is long gone and, in a way, I'm glad they got as far as they did but no further. Talent like this isn't for the Simon Cowells of this world. They're our favourite secret.
C	AL GARDNER	SWEET BABY	SEPIA 2	M-	500
Staying with the Motor City and a popular spin in recent times. Mind you, copies didn't turn up much when it wasn't popular! This one is a perfect copy, stone mint and played less than seven times.
D	FREDDY BUTLER	PITTER PATTEN	M&M 332	VG+	200
Completing a trio of Detroit rarities is this earlier effort from Freddy Butler which has got all it takes for those into the R&B style. A thunderous, ominous rhythm is topped by Butler's stentorian vocals. Great stuff, particularly if you like 'em black as the famous location in Calcutta.
E	KITTENS	WAIT A MINUTE	VICK 300	M-	200
Time to let the girls in and this Chicago trio of Bernice Willis, Thelma Mack and Laurel Ross made half a dozen or so 45's with little or no commercial success, but which are all worth owning. This is their rarest outing by far (and probably their first) combining two rather neat midtempo numbers. To confirm this fact we have also put a soundbite of the flipside 'Somebody New' for your delectation and delight.
F	JIMMY ANDREWS	BIG CITY PLAYBOY	BLUE JAY 5003	VG+	1200
Superb midtempo item out of New York has never been any less than scarce, scarce, scarce. Not a minter by any means but plays very well indeed. To emphasize this we have included the whole track.
G	KURT HARRIS	EMPEROR OF MY BABY'S HEART	DIAMOND 158	VG+	300
Staying with the Big Apple and a late eighties spin that went on to become a classic. Born as Curtis Futch Jnr, Harris also recorded as Kurtis Scott right out into the early eighties. A little bit of wear and tear means that a listen to the soundbite might assuage any doubt.

H	TY KARIM	YOU JUST DON'T KNOW	ROMARK 113	VG++	2000
If any singer ever stood for the depth of Black Music it is/was Ty Karim. Hardly known beyond the end of the street in Los Angeles where she became a recording artist (she was born Veatrice Thomas in Mississippi) Karim had a totally unique vocal style worthy of much more success than she had. In fact she hardly had any success! The result is that a superb body of work is almost totally scarce and unavailable – also quite excellent. Here is a singer who almost defines 'rare soul', and this is her rarest item.
I	LITTLE MELVIN & THE BOLEROS	JEALOUS LOVER	VALARIE 4397	M-	250
Things have got a little bit minty on this soulful mover that lay in the shadows for many years without folks realising how good it was. One of a number of great soul records out of Baltimore and, as we said, in rather perfect condition. If you don't know it, check out the soundbite.
J	T.J WILLIAMS & THE TWO SHADES OF SOUL	BABY I NEED YOU	JOSIE 1000	M-	200
Fabulous bouncy mover rose to real prominence around 15 years ago and became a dancefloor packer. The unknown T.J turns in a great performance (he could be Timmie Williams but I doubt it) on another near-perfect piece of vinyl.
K	HOWARD GUYTON	I WATCHED YOU SLOWLY SLIP AWAY	VERVE 10386	VG+	150
A total gem of uptown New York sixties soul from the ex-Top Note singer who also recorded as Guy Howard. Prior to his death in 1977 he had toured with a version of the Platters. A little bit rarer on stock copy than on promo this is one of those records that looks worse than it sounds, in fact it sounds very well indeed, so we include it for soundbite purposes.
L	THE OPELLS	DAY AND TIME	LINCO 112	VG++	200
An almost known early seventies mover on Walter Grady's label out of Greensboro' North Carolina, is worth checking out the soundbite for. Lead singer was one Tom Smith and writer James Steadman Jr. was also in the group. The flipside is a quality sweet soul harmony ballad.
M	FRANKIE & JOHNNY	I'LL HOLD YOU	UK DECCA 22376	M-	200
One of our occasional forays into UK records results in a mint copy of one of the best British productions ever, a non-hit to be proud of in fact from Scottish duo Maggie Bell and Bobby Kerr and always a rarity on original UK release.

SECOND PAGE FOCUS

1	EDDIE HOLMAN	A FREE COUNTRY	PARKWAY 960	M-	15

Fabulous midtempo – our last couple of copies. Don't miss it!
4	JR. WALKER & THE ALL STARS	THESE EYES	SOUL 35067	M-	6
You might not get better value all year. Super midtempo cut at a bargain price.

Always loved this Philly-styled 1976 dancer which recalls Harold Melvin and the Bluenotes.

Original version of the Pretenders record. Quality 60s all the way.

Bobby's superb version of the Steve Mancha song.
8	S.O.U.L	THIS TIME ROUND	MUSICOR 1472	M-	15
Great 1973 dancer, not their usual funky groove.
9	CLYDIE KING	'BOUT LOVE	LIZARD 21007	M-	10
Torch stormer – long forgotten but very nice.
10	VELVET	BET YOU IF YOU ASK AROUND	PERCEPTION 543	M-	15
Original version of the Quadrphonics track, got some big Mecca plays.
