SALES LIST #724 – MONDAY 2nd JULY

JULY RARE SOUL AUCTION

Auction ends THURSDAY 26TH JULY 6.00PM (18.00 GMT)
Just to reiterate our usual mantra, the auction finishes at the above time and the highest bid at that time wins the record and pays that price. It's an 'offer' system – no extensions or drop-downs. You pay the price you offered. Hope that's clear. Thanks for your attention.

JUNE RARE SOUL AUCTION

A	BILLY DAVIS	STANKY (GET FUNKY)	COBBLESTONE 731	M-	150
Has emerged from the shadows of a cheapie that was never really played to become one of the biggest dancefloor fillers in the land. Store mint copy.
B	DOUBLE O'S DEMINGOS	COLOR ONE TEAR BLACK	SPLIT 305222	VG+	600
This stranglely-named Ohio combo have at least four very rare records on this label of which this might be the rarest. Parts 1+2 are very different and it's Part 2 that does it for the dancers. Tremendous funky modern soul.
C	FREEMAN BROTHERS	YOU GOT ME ON A STRING	INT. ALLIED 501	M-	150
Once described as the 'Frank Wilson' of Deep Soul! And whilst it isn't that rare... or indeed, that kind of money, it certainly is a classic of that particular genre, having all the right ingredients to put you on your knees.
D	THE STEVE KARMEN BAND	BREAKAWAY	UNITED ARTISTS 50451	M-	200
Folks go on about rare issues – black RCAs, red Columbias and the like but this one on an ISSUE is up there with the rarest of them – only the second copy we've ever had.
E	SWISS MOVEMENT	I WISH OUR LOVE WOULD LAST FOREVER	GOLD 02	M-	150
Great modern soul dancer familiar to many.... HOWEVER, this is the very first release (on gold vinyl) that doesn't actually have a label name on it. It's either a weird promo or a withdrawn mistake, certainly much rarer than the release with label logo etc...
F	SPOT AND THE BLOTTERS	CIRCULATING	EQUAL 459601	M-	200
From Grand Rapids, Michigan – a fair drive from Detroit but with Palmer James on production duties there is certainly a Motor City feel about this one which can't have got very far due to unusual name of the group. Hardly sound like soulmen do they? But they are!
G	THE EMBERS	WISH YOU DIDN'T HAVE TO GO	EEE0069	M-	150
Now here's a mystery, and a rarity too. EEE 0069 is listed everywhere as 'Just Crazy 'Bout You Baby' c/w 'We've Come A Long Way Together'. This copy has only the second of those titles coupled with a great version of the Spooner and the Spoons record (which is on their rare album and was thought to be album-only).

H	LARRY WILLIAMS & JOHNNY WATSON	TOO LATE	OKEH 7281 WD	M-	150
A recent book about soul had the author claiming that the 'Northern' sound was so diverse these days that it was difficult to identify. Between '70 and '74 there was no such dilemma with storming 60s being the order of the day. Here is a classic example. Has a pic sleeve too (which we've also scanned).
I	THE FASCINATIONS	LUCKY	MAYFIELD 7711 WD	M-	500
A real rarity – a fluke misspress of 'I'm So Lucky He Loves Me' presents the INSTRUMENTAL (not the vocal) with 'Say It Isn't So' on the reverse. The mistake was quickly realised leaving a one-off fluke as a VERY rare record indeed.
J	CODY BLACK	STRANGER THAN A FAIRY TALE	PAMELA 7454	M-	200
Cody Black's first, and very obscure, record saw him released on the Pamela label in his native Cincinnati but this one sounds like a Detroit recording to us even if the label reputedly is not from the Motor City. A very rare and solid early soul dancer whatever the scenario and in sparkling condition too.

BRAND NEW 'ESSENTIAL' BOOK
'SPINNING AROUND: A HISTORY OF THE SOUL LP' (VOLUME 2 L-2)
SPECIAL OFFER

The second part of a complete listing WITH REVIEW of EVERY (and we mean 'every') soul album ever released. A quite remarkable effort that no soul collection should be without, and a two part situation that might be news to many of our customers.... So, we can offer BOTH volumes (A-K and L-Z) for a bargain £45 inc post and packing.
Very highly recommended.

And don't forget!!....
RICHARD SEARLINGS 'SETTING THE RECORD STRAIGHT'
Pre-order price £29.99 (inc P&P)
Stop press- Len Jewell picture and story just added.
A fantastic book just got better!
AVAILABLE SEPTEMBER 2018

SECOND PAGE FOCUS

1	THE CRUISERS	TAKE A CHANCE	GAMBLE 207	M-	10
Early release on the label saw Stafford action.
2	HONEY & THE BEES	HELP ME	JOSIE 1028	M-	15
There were actually two different groups going by this name in Philly. This is the Arctic combo.
3	KOLETTES	WHO'S THAT GUY	CHECKER 13421	M-	20
Tremendous powerhouse femme group – none other than the Soul Sisters (Sue) under a pseudonym.
4	THE SUPERLATIVES	LONELY IN A CROWD	WESTBOUND 144	M-	15
Superior group harmonies and a crisp Detroit production. Highly recommended.
5	BULL & MATADORS	I CAN'T FORGET	TODDLIN TOWN 116	M-	15
Could repeat the description from above easily enough – this time its Chicago of course.
6	JOHNNY JONES	I FIND NO FAULT	FURY 5050	M-	15
Great midtempo cut full of atmosphere.

7	THE SPINNERS	I'LL ALWAYS LOVE YOU	MOTOWN 1078	M-	10
A total gem of the highest order in mint condition.
8	THE UNDISPUTED TRUTH	YOU GOT THE LOVE I NEED	GORDY 7108	M-	15
Superb 'under the radar' 1971 release – how did we miss it at the time?
9	FRANKIE VALLI	YOU'RE READY NOW	SMASH 2037	M-	10
Blue-eyed Northern doesn't get much better than this. Get yourself a minter.
10	THE SHARPEES	I'VE GOT A SECRET	ONE-DERFUL! 3177	M-	15
Phew – not played this in a long time – and its sounding very good to be honest.
